New Silks and Dress Goods.

Roman Persian Taffetas and Satin Striped Dresden Taffetas are among this season's swiftest Waist Silks.

Chenille Taffetas—black chenille cords on colors—grand Silks, either for waists or dress trimming.

Raised Cord Taffetas are not as expensive. Come in all the new solid colorings.

Blocked Ombre Stripes are strikingly different from any Silks heretofore produced.

25 fall shades in finest Taffetas, 85c yard.

Many of the new Fall Dress Goods combine double features—different weaves and colorings on the two sides, but all of them finished to wear either way.

Double-faced Golf Suitings and Cloakings—plain on one side, plaid on the other.

Double-faced Chevots, Venetians, Camel's Hair, Homespuns, etc.

Handsome new Black Crepons and Velours.

Beautiful Taffetas, Satin and Chiffon All-Over.

New Suits and Waists.

Striking individuality in all of them. How do you like this Suit?

Made of grey Camel's Hair Cheviot, full taffeta lined; double-breasted light-fitting jacket, a trifle shorter than last season's. The new "Habit" Skirt of this Suit has a perfectly plain back, but it flares out to a fullness equal to last season's. The unusual feature of this skirt is an extension seam at side, which extends into a generous fly vent—no pleats in either jacket or skirt.

Dozens of New Silk Waists

here. One style made of new violet corded and tucked taffeta, with full yoke and stock of pure white tucked and open braid stitched taffeta. Attached to bottom of yoke at front and back are divided white taffeta silk flaps, covered with black silk bow knots—flaring cuffs to correspond.

This store recently bought the entire Sample-Lingaman Co.'s stock of goods, and you can still buy what is left at about One-Half the regular prices.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

THE Conservatory of Music will open Monday, September 11.

The evening school of Wheeling Business College opened September 4.

The sand cutters who work at night at the Wheeling Mould and Foundry Company's plant, went on a strike last evening for an advance of 25 cents per night. They are receiving $1.50 per night for ten hour work. There are only five of these men.

The G. A. R. drum corps will play for Merchants' Day to-morrow. The boys are giving their services to the merchants' committee gratuitously. They will parade the principal streets, starting at 2 p. m., and will wind up at the fair grounds. They will also be an accompanying feature of the fireworks celebration.

Among the Wheeling people who went to Philadelphia to attend the G. A. R. encampment, the following took the Pan Handle Sunday and Monday: C. B. Colburn, Fred S. Stroehner, Mrs. Fawn Patterson, H. A. Graebe, W. B. McMechen, Mrs. Newton, Charles H. Parriott, F. W. Stewart, Mrs. A. E. Sherman, Fred H. Williams, William Wincher, Mary E. Bellinger, Mrs. John Dusch.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, while Mr. Paul O. Heymann was driving a team of horses hitched to a survey along Market street, one of the horses stumbled on the street car track, and falling broke its leg. The animal's misery was ended by Dr. Reeder with a revolver shot. The other horse was uninjured, and the buggy and its occupant suffered no damage.

Temple Washington, watchman at the Terminal station, last night attempted the "move on" act on a sleeping Irishman, but the son of Erin wouldn't have it that way, and drew a cane on the colored man, who gave the fellow a push that knocked him down. Bystanders had Washington arrested on the charge of disorderly conduct. He deposited $10 for his appearance in police court this morning. Washington has an excellent reputation.

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Ushered in Last Night With Elaborate Ceremonies at the Synagogue. Services Scheduled for To-day.

Rosh Hoshana, the Jewish New Year, began yesterday at sunset, and services in observance of this great event on the Hebrew calendar were held last night at the synagogue, conducted by Rabbi Harry Levi. To-day, which is the New Year's proper, will see services at the temple this morning and a closing of business houses by the orthodox brethren.

Many members of the East Liverpool congregation were in the large attendance of worshippers at last night's exercises. The musical portion of the programme was of a high order and consisted of solos by Mr. Day and Miss McGrannahan, besides the regular music. Rabbi Levi, discoursed on the theme, "A Retrospective: What Shall We Learn From the Past Year?" It was an eloquent and effective resume of the old year. There was a memorial tinge to the reflections on the year.

A more joyous vein will permeate this morning's sermon by Rabbi Levi, his subject being, "A Prospect: What Shall We Do for the Coming Year?" The solos will be by Mrs. Caldwell and Miss Land.

The synagogue is beautifully decorated with flowers.

The officers of the congregation for the new year are as follows:

President, Samuel Kraft.

Vice president, J. Emsheimer.

Trustees, J. Baer, E. Baer, L. Horkheimer and Ralph Kline.

Sabbath school board, J. Reizenstein, M. Steinfeld, Henry Jacobs, M. Sonnenborn and Chairman L. Hanauer.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

In County Clerk Robertson's office yesterday a marriage license was granted to Bonie Sitzmann, aged 25, and Rosa Kramer, aged 22, both of Wheeling. No deeds were recorded.
